INTRODUCTION.

This list of books for school libraries was prepared a year ago, by G. A. Ketcham, then Deputy State Superintendent, now Principal of the County High School at Missoula. It was not printed at that time because the appropriation for public printing was so nearly exhausted, that it was decided to defer this until after the meeting of the legislature. We have left this list substantially as prepared by Mr. Ketcham, only adding a few books to bring the list down to date.

H. A. DAVEE.

PREFACE.

The list of books submitted herewith, while much more extensive than the last, is only commensurate with the growth of the state in all respects. Many books previously recommended have been omitted because better ones have appeared in their field. Many of the books retained from the old list are recommended in different and better edditions, it being the belief of the department that with books, especially, it is usually wise to buy the best. A cheaply got up book will not last long in the library and will not command respect while it does last. It is desirable to have a few good books rather than many cheap ones.

The list is arranged alphabetically by both titles and authors. Under the name of each author is given a list of all works by that author included in the list. Brief explanatory notes for the guidance of purchasers have been in most cases appended under the title of the books. In the next edition of the catalog the annotating plan will probably be applied to all books. Lack of time has rendered it impossible in this edition. Proper classification of the books has also of necessity been postponed.

No attempt has been made to furnish anything like a complete list of High School or teacher's books. A few of the latter will, however, be found and a considerable number of the former, chiefly because of the impossibility of drawing an exact boundary between eighth grade and High School.

The first price given is the publishers list price; the second price is the price at which the publishers have agreed to furnish the books to Montana schools. These prices are further described in connection with the list of publishers. They are always f. o. b., at the city named for each publisher in the list.

In case the order of a single district is not sufficient to make a freight shipment, the districts could save some of the cost of transportation by turning their orders over to the county superintendent to be combined with orders from other districts or adjoining districts may arrange the matter between themselves.

The law provides that the county superintendent shall be consulted in the purchase of library books.

It is hoped that the publication of this catalog will stimulate interest in the school library, especially in rural districts and that trustees will be inclined to appropriate money, not only as provided by law, but liberally as the finances of the district will at all warrant.

Following is a list of all publishers whose names appear in the folowing pages. First is given the full name of the firm, then,— in parenthesis, the abbreviation employed in this catalog and thereafter the city to which the f. o. b. school price applies. Exceptions are noted. The full address of the company is also given.

Books should be ordered in the name of the school district and reference made to this catalog. Districts may have all books ordered from firms doing business in the same city delivered to one of them for boxing and shipment. The firm selected for this purpose should be the one from which the largest number of books is ordered.

SCHOOL LIBRARIES.

(Chap. XII., of Chap. 76, Session Laws of 1913.)

1200. LIBRARY FUND. A Library fund is hereby created, and the board of school trustees must expend the library fund together with such moneys as may be added thereto by donation, in the purchase of books for a school library, including books for supplementary work; Provided, that in school districts in which a free public library is maintained such library fund may, in the discreton of the board of trustees, be used for the payment of the current expenses for maintenance of the schools.

1201 DISTRICTS OF THIRD CLASS. In districts of the third class, the library fund shall consist of not less than five nor more than ten per cent of the county school fund annually apportioned to the district; Provided, that if such ten per cent exceed fifty dollars, fifty dollars only shall be apportioned to the district.

1202. DISTRICTS OF THE FIRST AND SECOND CLASS. In districts of the first and second classes the library fund shall consist of a sum not to exceed fifty dollars for every five hundred children or major fraction thereof, between the ages of six and twenty-one years, annually taken from the general school fund of the county apportioned to such district.

1203. LOCATION AND CONTROL OF LIBRARIES. The library shall be under the control of the board of trustees and must be kept, when practicable, in the school house, and shall be for the use of the pupils and all residents of the district.

1204. RULES, REPORTS. The trustees shall be held accountable for the proper care and preservation of the library, and shall make all needful rules and regulations not provided for by the superintendent of public instruction, and not inconsistent therewith; and they shall report annually to the county superintendent all library statistics which may be required by the blanks furnished for the purpose by the superintendent of public instruction.

1205. SELECTION OF BOOKS. All books shall be selected by the county superintendent and school trustees, acting together, from lists approved by the Superintendent of Public Instruction. It shall be the duty of the county superintendent in his visits to inspect the library and to make such suggestions regarding its use and care as he may deem advisable. It shall be the duty of the superintendent of public instruction to formulate rules and regulations for the school libraries and furnish to the county superintendent from time to time such instruction and information as will make the use of the library most effective.
